CODE OF PRACTICE for the club, officials, participants, and volunteers

The essence of good ethical conduct and practice is summarised below. All persons involved with clyderunners agree to always :-:

- Consider the wellbeing and safety of all participants before the development of personal performance.
- Develop an appropriate working relationship with all participants, based on mutual trust and respect.
- Within limits of expertise, ensure activities are appropriate to the condition, ability and experience of those taking part.
- Promote the positive aspects of the sport (e.g. fair play).
- Display consistently high standards of behaviour and appearance.
- Follow all guidelines laid down by the national governing body.
- Never exert undue influence over performers to obtain personal benefit or reward.
- Never condone rule violations, rough play or the use of prohibited substances.
- Encourage participants to value their performances and not just results.
- Encourage and guide participants to accept responsibility for their own performance and behaviour.
